

There will be five scholarships awarded for the 2003-2004 academic year. The awards will be for $200. Students whose parent or guardian is a member of PEF Division 399 and who will be enrolled in a college or trade school for the Fall 2004 semester are eligible to apply.

Submit by June 30, 2004:

- 1) Application
- 2) Essay on why you would be a good candidate for the award, maximum 500 words. Include academic achievement, school activities, leadership positions, community activities, work activities, individual interests, and future academic plans. If you are a student with special needs, you may include how you have overcome obstacles to achieve your goals.
- 3) Letter of recommendation from a member of the community who is in a leadership position. (i.e. teacher, clergy person, work supervisor, coach, etc. Do not use friends or relatives.)
- 4) Copy of last report card or SAT scores if you are a high school student or a copy of your last semester's grades if you are currently in college.

The scholarship committee is seeking well-rounded individuals. Awards will be based on academic work and extra-curricular and community involvement. The special needs of students will be taken into consideration, therefore all interested are encouraged to apply.
